THE CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU APPOINTS NATIONALLY KNOWN THOUGHT LEADER AND SUNRISE BANKS CEO, DAVID REILING, TO THE COMMUNITY BANK ADVISORY COUNCIL

ST. PAUL, Minn., September 8, 2014 Long time social entrepreneur, thought leader and Sunrise Banks CEO, David Reiling, has been appointed by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's (CFPB) Community Bank Advisory Council (CBAC).

Per the Dodd-Frank Act, the purpose of the CFPB is to “supervise depository institutions and credit unions with total assets of more than $10 billion and their respective affiliates.” To ensure the “unique perspectives” of those depository institutions with less than $10 billion in assets are shared with the Bureau, the CFPB created the Community Bank Advisory Council. According to the Community Bank Advisory Council's charter, this ensures that an “interactive dialogue and exchange of ideas and experiences between community bankers and Bureau staff” are shared.

“I am honored and humbled to be appointed to the CFPB’s Community Bank Advisory Council”, says Reiling. “This is a great opportunity to share the real life needs of our underserved communities. I look forward to CBAC’s dialogue about the challenges financial institutions like Sunrise Banks face in developing innovative solutions for underserved communities.”

Joining Reiling as new appointments on the Community Bank Advisory Council include:

- Michael Gallagher, Senior Vice President, Risk Management Director, Enterprise Bank & Trust Company, Lowell, Mass.
