ALEESHA WEBB JOINS SUNRISE BANKS' COMMERCIAL TEAM

ST PAUL, Minn. – May 16, 2016 – Sunrise Banks today announced the addition of Minnesota banking veteran, Aleesha Webb, to their team as Senior Vice President, Commercial Loan Officer.

When asked about the addition, Nichol Beckstrand, President of the Holding Company and Interim President of Sunrise Banks N.A. said, "We're thrilled to have Aleesha joining the Sunrise family. Her depth of lending expertise and experience in the banking industry will complement our already successful Commercial team."

Aleesha Webb brings 12 years of Community Banking experience with her to Sunrise Banks. She started her banking career at Village Bank where she served as Director, Vice President, as well as other positions. She then moved to Minnesota Bank & Trust where she served as Vice President before transitioning to Sunrise. Webb is active around the Twin Cities as a former Children's Hospital Association Board Member as well as currently serving as the Board Director for Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Greater Twin Cities and Alumni Association Board Director for the University of St. Thomas. In 2016, Webb was named to The (Real) Power 50 list by Minnesota Business Magazine.

Webb completed her undergraduate and her MBA at the University of St. Thomas as well as completing a Banking, Corporate, Financial, and Securities Law graduate program at University of Wisconsin-Madison.
