SUNRISE BANKS NAMES MELODIE CARLSON AS CHIEF ADMINISTRATION OFFICER

ST. PAUL, Minn., September 21, 2018 – Sunrise Banks has announced that current chief financial officer, Melodie Carlson, will now serve as chief administration officer. This appointment comes following Carlson’s service on the bank’s leadership team since 2015.

As chief administration officer, Carlson will oversee the overall management of Corporate Administration, Human Resources, Facility Management and Audit departments. She will design organizational structures to manage growth and strategic business changes, implement and streamline administrative systems and policies, and oversee regulatory reporting.

“Melodie has proven to be an incredible asset to our leadership team since she joined Sunrise.” Says Sunrise Banks CEO, David Reiling. “Her talents for organizational leadership and development will ensure the Bank’s continued success.”

Carlson looks forward to this new post, “I’m honored to accept this new position. I’m excited for the new challenges and opportunities that come with it and I look forward to the future working with an incredible team.”
